

THE UNIVERSITY OF ICELAND

GRADUATION CEREMONY 17 FEBRUARY 2023

Congratulations on your degree

Dear candidate,

The University of Iceland Graduation Ceremony is fast approaching, and I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate you on your achievement. All of us at HÍ are extremely proud of you and your fellow students and wish you the very best for the future.

It is of great importance to us that you enjoyed your time at the University of Iceland, and we would love to maintain and strengthen our connection in the future. For us, all University of Iceland graduates are alumni. The university's alumni work is aimed at strengthening these connections and sharing information on aspects of university operations that may interest you.

I look forward to welcoming you to the Graduation Ceremony, which will take place in Háskólabíó (University Cinema) on Friday, 17 February at 3 p.m. Below you can find some practical information regarding the ceremony, with which I kindly ask you to familiarise yourself.

Best regards,

Jón Atli Benediktsson, Rector of the University of Iceland

Useful information for collecting your degree certificate

Time and place: Friday 17 February at 3 p.m. in the University Cinema.

Arrival: No later than 2 p.m.

Guests: Two guests may accompany you.

Seating arrangements: You will have a designated seat; your seat number can be found on the list of candidates distributed by the entrance to the University Cinema.

The ceremony: When your group (i.e. department/programme) is announced, candidates walk onto the stage from the left to a mark on the floor. Once you have received your diploma from the Head of Faculty and shaken the Rector's hand, walk across the stage and return directly to your seat. University staff will be on site to provide further instructions.
